THE GOAL IS TO MAKE THE POLIO VACCINE SAFER

Dear Colleagues:

This week (17 April) the world is attempting a first — the largest, quickest rollout of a vaccine in history. The goal is to make the polio vaccine safer, but it comes with a big risk.

This week, health workers all over the world are attempting a first, to pull off the largest and quickest rollout ever of a new vaccine.

It's for polio.

The goal is to replace the existing vaccine with a safer one.

The world uses nearly 2 billion doses of polio vaccine each year. They're all stored in little vials at clinics and hospitals across the globe. Now every single vial has to be destroyed and switched out with a new one, and it all has to get done in two weeks.

Thousands of monitors are visiting thousands and thousands of sites. It's all being done for a really good reason, to get the world closer to eradicating polio. Robin Nandy is the chief of immunization at UNICEF, which is helping with the vaccine switch out. He says the vaccine used in most countries contains a live virus. Now, the virus has been weakened, so it doesn't make people sick but...

In very rare instances, the live vaccine virus can mutate and cause polio.

And UNICEF's Robin Nandy says it's all worth the risk because if the world is ever going to wipe out polio, we have to first make sure the vaccine isn't causing it.

ROTARACT

Charter Night for Western Sydney University Rotaract

Last night Jett and I attended the Charter Night at Campbelltown for the Western Sydney University Rotaracts. Sixty three members were inducted, the highest number of Rotaracts in one club since the 1970s.

One hundred and seventy five guests attended including DG Graham Wilson and his wife Helen, and the DGE Stephen Humphries and wife Judith, Federal Member for Macarthur the Hon. Russell Matheson, Mayor of Campbelltown, Mr Paul Hacker and Rotarian presidents from Macarthur Sunrise, Campbelltown, Camden, Narellan, Wollondilly North and Picton.

It was a great night with lots of inspiring speeches, my favourite from the new President Judith Mogi as to what inspired her to start the Rotaract Club –she said that the Rotary Club of Padstow sponsored her through the Youth Science Program then asked her back to learn all about Rotary and what Rotary does. She then volunteered to do a project in Cambodia and on her return felt she wanted to give back so has now started this wonderful club that is full of enthusiasm, already committed to many community service projects and they are having fun.

The Rotaracts are Rotary's future- well done,

ROTARY INFORMATION

Council grants clubs greater flexibility in meeting, membership

Council member Dominique Dubois holds up a green card to indicate support of a motion while Sandeep Nurang ponders his response during the 2016 Council on Legislation.

The 2016 Council on Legislation may well be remembered as one of the most progressive in Rotary history.

Not only did this Council grant clubs more freedom in determining their meeting schedule and membership, it also approved an increase in per capita dues of $4 a year for three years. The increase will be used to enhance Rotary's website, improve online tools, and add programs and services to help clubs increase membership.

The Council is an essential element of Rotary's governance. Every three years, members from around the world gather in Chicago to consider proposed changes to the policies that govern the organization and its member clubs. Measures that are adopted take effect 1 July.

The tone for this year was set early, when the RI Board put forth two proposals that increase flexibility. The first measure allows clubs to decide to vary their meeting times, whether to meet online or in person, and when to cancel a meeting, as long as they meet at least twice a month. The second allows clubs flexibility in choosing their membership rules and requirements. Both passed.

Representatives also approved removing six membership criteria from the RI Constitution and replacing them with a simple requirement that a member be a person of good character who has a good reputation in their business or community and is willing to serve the community.

The $4 per year dues increase was based on a five-year financial forecast that predicted that if Rotary didn't either raise dues or make drastic cuts, its reserves would dip below mandated levels by 2020. The yearly per capita dues that clubs pay to RI will be $60 in 2017-18, $64 in 2018-19, and $68 in 2019-20. The next council will establish the rate after that.

"We are at a moment in time when we must think beyond the status quo," said RI Vice President Greg E. Podd. "We must think about our future."

Podd said the dues increase will allow RI to improve My Rotary, develop resources so clubs can offer a better membership experience, simplify club and district reporting, improve website access for Rotaractors, and update systems to keep Rotary in compliance with changing global regulations.

Also because of this Council's decisions:

- A Council on Resolutions will meet annually online to consider resolutions — recommendations to the RI Board. Council members will be selected for three-year terms. They'll participate in the Council on Resolutions for three years and the Council on Legislation in their final year only. The Council on Resolutions will free the Council on Legislation to concentrate on enactments — changes to Rotary's governing documents. Proponents predict that the Council on Legislation can then be shortened by a day, saving $300,000.
- Rotaractors will be allowed to become members of Rotary clubs while they are still in Rotaract. Proponents argued that too few Rotaractors (around 5 percent) join Rotary. Sometimes it's because they don't want to leave their Rotaract clubs before they have to, upon reaching age 30. It's hoped that giving them more options will boost the numbers of qualified young leaders in Rotary.

- The distinction between e-clubs and traditional clubs will be eliminated. The Council recognized that clubs have been meeting in a number of ways, and given this flexibility, the distinction was no longer meaningful. Clubs that have “e-club” in their names can keep it, however.
- The reference to admission fees will be removed from the bylaws. Proponents argued that the mention of admission fees does not advance a modern image of Rotary.
- A standing committee on membership was established, in recognition that membership is a top priority of the organization, and polio eradication was also reaffirmed to be a goal of the highest order.
